

November Final Sales Tax Report

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-January 15, 2020-The City of Steamboat Springs has published the Final November 2019 Sales, Use, and Accommodation Tax Report (Full Report).

City of Steamboat Springs' November 2019 sales tax collections are 5.05% more compared to the November 2018 collections or an increase of $80,869. For the past 5 years, November collections represent about 6% of annual collections. Year to date sales tax collection is 8.05% more than year to date through November 2018.

When comparing this November to the same month last year, the greatest categorical increases were in marijuana at 13.49%, and miscellaneous retail at 9.94%. Notable increases in collections by area were 15.93% for the regional area and 9.05% for the mountain.

Accommodation Tax is primarily dedicated to local trail projects since the Yampa Street improvements portion of referendum 2A was completed last year. A small amount each year is dedicated towards the marketing of these projects and capital improvements at Haymaker. November collections reflect an increase of 16.44% compared to the same period last year. Year to date accommodations tax is up 14.81% compared to the same period last year.

Building Use Tax is used to fund capital projects for the City of Steamboat Springs. This tax fluctuates depending on building permits issued, use tax audits completed, and the size and number of developments in the City. November net use tax collections total $80,845. Year to date net use tax collections total $2,399,964 which is 46% higher compared to the same period last year.

The city's Tax Division strives to provide superior services. General tax information and staff contacts can be found on the Municipal Tax page. The webpage provides an efficient way for customers to access information on sales tax rates, online sales tax filing, construction use tax, excise tax on construction, vehicle use tax, and links to documents, reports and the sales tax code.

-WeServeTheCity-

Contact

Sue Davies, Budget and Tax Manager, 970.871.8251 or email